Bridge Party

Miss Frances Kennedy has issued invitations to a bridge party for Friday afternoon, complimentary to the two brides, Mrs. Harold Greene and Mrs. Jesse Hainline.

Luncheon

Mrs. Jack Owings entertained a number of friends at a beautifully appointed luncheon today at "Rolling Heights," her lovely country home on the Owingsville pike.

Mission Circle

The Mission Circle of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. Ralph

Greene and Mrs. Howard Turner at the home of Mrs. Turner on Clay street, Monday evening at 7:30.

Entertains Club

Miss Margaret Ramsey was hostess to her card club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Samuels avenue. Preceding the game a delightful luncheon was served and the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to bridge. Those present were Mrs. A. B. Oldham, Jr., Mrs. English Baker, Miss Thelma Blount, Miss Mary Lawless Gatewood, Miss Emily Hazelrigg, Miss Margaret Nesbitt and Miss Mildred Gatewood.

For Mrs. Wheeler

Mrs. W. P. Whigler, of Ashland, was the guest of honor at an informal bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Hoffman at her home in Everett Court. Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the game, and Mrs. Hoffman's guests were: Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Robt. Coleman, Mrs. Pierce Winn, Mrs. J. O. Greene, Mrs. Jack Owings, Mrs. Percy D. Bryan, Mrs. C. T. Hazelrigg and Miss Lizzie P. Coleman.

Luncheon Bridge

Mrs. Harold Greene and Mrs. Jesse R. Hainline were the guests of honor at a charming party on Saturday when Miss Mary Vansant Robertson entertained for them at a luncheon-bridge. The table was laid with dainty lace mats and had for its centre decoration a silver basket holding rose and white chrysanthemums. A delightful menu of several courses was served and Miss Robertson's guests were: Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Hainline, Mrs. Stewart Sharp, Miss Martha Mae Robertson, Miss Frances Kennedy, Miss Margaret Ramsey, Miss Laura Hart, Miss Anna B. Pinney, Mrs. Leo Hombs, Mrs. Edward Wright, of Sharpsburg and Mrs. William Tipton.

Halloween Party

"In costumes weird and queer, The witches, never fear, Will meet you at the door, Christine Compton, North Sycamore October 31st, seven to nine. Please reply."

The above invitations sent out last week met with a hearty response, and her young friends in large numbers accepted little Miss Compton's invitation to celebrate Halloween. A huge shock of fodder lighted from within, guided the guests to the house where they were met at the door by a white robed spook, and given a ghostly handshake. With fear and trembling, and fairly quaking in their boots the children were invited into the cheery living room and the fun began. Story telling, a peanut race, and Halloween games were enjoyed, and a fortune teller added much to the party. Doughnuts and hot chocolate with candy and fruit were served. About seventy-five guests were present.

Mrs. Ragan Entertains

One of the prettiest parties of the week was that of Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Hanly C. Ragan entertained at bridge at her home on North Maysville street. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves being used. At the conclusion of the game, the card tables were spread and elaborate refreshments of substantial and ices were served. Mrs. Ragan's party included: Mrs. George McAllister, Mrs. C. H. Petry, Mrs. Sallie Brothier, Mrs. J. M. Venable, Mrs. S. Ellis Spratt, Mrs. Roger L. Spratt, Mrs. C. B. Duerson, Miss Lela Farris, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. E. W. Senff, Mrs. Charles Highland, Mrs. Henry Judy, Mrs. Marion Bridges, Mrs. Alfred Crooks, Mrs. Steve Pieratt, Miss Pearl Lane, Mrs. Lester Lee, Mrs. W. K. Prewitt, Mrs. C. E. Duff, Mrs. G. B. Senff and Mrs. Marvin Gay.

Mrs. Hainline Entertains

Throwing open her lovely new home for the first time, Mrs. Jesse R. Hainline entertained a number of friends at bridge yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Greene, whose wedding was an event of the past month, was the guest of honor for this happy occasion, and the guests included the most intimate friends of the hostess and the honoree. Halloween decorations were used in the adornment of the attractive rooms and following the games, a delightful repast was served. Mrs. Hainline was assisted by Mrs. W. T. Tyler and Miss Mary Bratton Morris, and her party included: Mrs. Greene, Miss Mary Vansant Robertson, Mrs. A. B. Oldham, Jr., Mrs. Edward Wright, Mrs. S. C. Sharp, Mrs. Leo Hombs, Miss Frances Kennedy, Miss Ida Belle Brothier,

Miss Carolyn Bourne, Miss Mary Crall and Mrs. William Tipton. The company was later joined by Mrs. David Howell, Miss Martha Hlatt, Miss Martha Mae Robinson and Mrs. Lela Sharp, who came in for lunch.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. Prewitt Young were hosts at a beautifully appointed six o'clock dinner Tuesday night at their home in the country in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Young, on the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The house was a mass of yellow chrysanthemums, and golden colored autumn leaves, and a beautiful dinner was served from tables in the dining room and living room. The bride's table, at which were seated the older folks, had for a center piece a huge wedding cake, which was cut by Mrs. Young at the close of the dinner. Miss Sally Clay drawing the darning needle, Miss Maryann Young the ring and Nat Young II, the dime. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Charles D. Highland and Mrs. W. P. Oldham, and the guests present were: Chifton Prewitt, Sr., Mrs. Caswell Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. D.

J. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Lois Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Prewitt, Judge and Mrs. H. R.
